

Sheila Harris-Adams, Vice President of Business Development - Parts Life, Inc.

Sheila Harris-Adams is currently the Vice President of Business Development for Parts Life, Inc. a Defense Contractor located in Moorestown, NJ. Ms. Harris-Adams is the driving force behind the unprecedented success Parts Life, Inc. has had over the past several years providing life cycle sustainment solutions that have helped their customers extend the life of their expensive mission critical assets.

Sheila Harris-Adams is a success driven visionary who has garnered over 30 years of experience in the fields of Business Development, Operations, Management, Project Management, Human Resources, and Sales and Marketing. She has donned various hats excelling in many roles including VP of Business Development, Director of Sales and Marketing, Director of Outreach, Regional Director of Human Resources, and CEO of a multi-million dollar organization.

Ms. Harris-Adams serves on the board of numerous non-profit organizations throughout the state and is an active member of various defense industry associations such as the NDIA (National Defense Industrial Association), AUSA (Association of the United States Army), NCMA (National Contract Management Association), WID (Women in Defense), the TPP (The Patuxent Partnership), NAVAIR Patuxent Small Business Roundtable, and NAWCAD LKE-SBR (NAVAIR Lakehurst Small Business Roundtable) where she currently serves as Board Co-Chair. She is also a member of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, the South Jersey Chamber of Commerce where she serves on the Political Action Committee and the Burlington County Regional Chamber of Commerce where she serves on the Government Affairs Board, is a member of the Ambassadors and the Military Council.

Sheila Harris-Adams dedication to the empowerment of our youth and community has placed her at the forefront of many initiatives and she has passionately served in various roles including Title I Business Administrator, Certified NC Department of Public Instruction Trainer, Program Director and Grant Administrator for CCE NAACP Youth Internship Program, Member of Burlington County Workforce Development & Lifelong Training, Board of BCIT Adult Education Advisory Committee, Economic Advisory Panel Burlington County Freeholders, Certified Small Business Trainer, Community Involvement Liaison, Grant Facilitator, Program Director, and Political Action Committee Chair, Certified Couples and Youth Church Leader.

Along with a degree in Business Ms. Harris-Adams holds numerous business certification and accreditations. A native of Cherry Hill, NJ, Ms. Harris-Adams currently resides in Merchantville, NJ with her husband and son.