

Deby Miller Findley is Vice President, SBA Lending at Fulton Bank N. A., a $20 billion bank headquartered in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Deby manages a $15 million portfolio while developing and processing new SBA loan requests. Prior to her current position at Fulton Bank, she held commercial and SBA lending positions in various lending institutions in New Jersey. She attended Catholic University where is worked on her MBA and earned her bachelor's degree in both accounting and finance from West Virginia University. She sits on the Board of Directors for the Better Business Bureau of New Jersey and is a member of the lending committee for the Lakewood Urban Enterprise Zone. Deby is also active as a volunteer with SOS Beagle Rescue fostering dogs and training them for permanent placement into a loving family.