Jeannie started at Parts Life, Inc. as a Business Development Specialist, working to research and identify opportunities for Parts Life. In her current role, Jeannie expands on that research, gaining a better understanding of the current market as well as identifying growth opportunities for Parts Life, Inc. She currently serves on the Lakehurst Small Business Roundtable as part of the Executive Steering Committee. Passionate about mentoring other women in the business and defense industry, Jeannie has been involved in the Women in Defense Liberty Chapter mentoring program for the past several years.

Jeannie Whitfield holds a bachelor's degree from Temple University and an MBA from Louisiana State University.
