

YULIN G. BINGLE

Ms. Bingle currently represents the Director, Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), at the National Security Agency.

Previous roles:

- Director, Europe Eurasia Regional Center, DIA. Senior manager and focal point to synchronize enterprise interdisciplinary, integrated intelligence operations, analysis, and collections
- Deputy Director for Policy Support, DIA. Ensured relevant and timely intelligence support to Office of the Secretary of Defense and Combatant Commands
- Director, Cyber Intelligence, Department of Homeland Security. Led the intelligence effort against cyberthreats to support the department, Federal/state/local entities, and private sector critical infrastructure owners and operators
- Chief, Office for Cyberthreat Analysis, DIA. Led intelligence analysis for cyberspace; command, control, communications, computers, and intelligence; space/counterspace; and human factors
- Chief, Iraq Intelligence Task Force, DIA. Led interdisciplinary effort and integrated Iraq analysis and collection for national and DoD policy, planning, acquisition, and military decisions

Education:

- Bachelor of Science in Political Science, U.S. Air Force (USAF) Academy
- U.S. Air Force Fighter Weapons School
- Master of Arts in Management, Webster University
- Air Command and Staff College, Air University
- Master of Airpower Art and Science, USAF School of Advanced Airpower Studies, Air University
- Master of Science in National Security Strategy and Policy, National War College, National Defense University

Military Career: Served at every level from a fighter squadron to Joint and Combined Commands across the United States, Pacific, Southwest Asia, and Europe. Selected roles:

- Commander, Pacific Air Intelligence Squadron. Provided critical intelligence for Pacific Air Forces.
- Commander, 548th Intelligence Group. Commanded five squadrons to provide U-2, Predator, and Global Hawk imagery, signals, and measurement and signatures intelligence to U.S. ground forces in Iraq and Afghanistan. Won Director of Central Intelligence Meritorious Unit Citation
- Deputy Commander, 607 Air Intelligence Group in South Korea
- Deputy Director Strategic Communications and Strategic Effects Strategist / Planner to the Commanding General, Multi-National Force-Iraq
- Campaign Strategist to the Combined Force Air Component Commander during Operation ALLIED FORCE
- Director of Operations, U.S. Air Warfare Center
- Space Mission Director and Deputy Command Director, North American Air Defense Command
- Executive officer to the Air Force Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence
- Director of Plans, Resources, and Operations at National Air and Space Intelligence Center

Awards: Legion of Merit, two Bronze Stars, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, five Meritorious Service Medals, multiple DIA Director Unit Awards, multiple Office of Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Team Awards, and ODNI Integration Award.

Honors: USAF Intelligence Officer of the Year; DIA top 1% Award – Commitment to Excellence; Ira Eaker Writing Award for “Information as a Weapon: Reality Versus Promises” published in Airpower Journal; President’s Outstanding Writing Award for best paper of the year, “Civil Military Relations During Coalition Operations in the Balkans,” at National Defense University; and lead author for 2020 Best Research Paper, “Internet Research Agency’s Campaign to Influence the U.S. 2016 Elections: Assessing Linguistic Profiles via Statistical Analysis,” at Consortium for Computing Sciences in Colleges-Eastern Region Conference.