

Arlene M. Korn
Senior Program Manager
QED Systems Inc.

Ms. Arlene M. Korn has over 30 years of experience in Logistics Management and Support, spanning aviation and ships Maintenance and Modernization, in-service and ship acquisition programs. Her career includes 16 years' government service in supply at the Naval Aviation Supply Office in Philadelphia (Now called NAVSUP-WSS), as well as 20 years DOD industry experience in a variety of Logistics, Program Management/ Leadership roles. Ms. Korn is well known for her experience and contributions to Logistics, ship acquisition and new construction programs in the Philadelphia area. She is an active member of the Navy League, the National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA) and is a board member of ASNE-Delaware Valley and NDIA-Women in Defense Liberty Chapter. Ms. Korn is an advocate for women in our industry, mentoring and guiding young women (and men) in the logistics field. She is currently employed by Q.E.D Systems Inc. as a Senior Program Manager.