

Margaret Margle

Senior Executive Director, Business Development
Sabre Systems, Inc.

mmargle@sabresystems.com

Margaret Margle is a senior executive with 25+ years of experience working in the defense industry specifically in cyber, enterprise information technology and engineering services. She is the Sr. Executive Director, Business Development for Sabre Systems, Inc., a mid-sized software and systems engineering company that specializes in providing mission critical solutions for defense, civilian and commercial customers in the areas of Cyber, C5ISR, Systems Engineering/Integration, Software Engineering, Digital Transformation, and Business Intelligence/Data Analytics. Ms. Margle is responsible for creating new business opportunities through strong customer relationships, while also providing value to executive decision makers and influencers. Ms. Margle is responsible for defining business strategies; identifying strategic pursuit opportunities; and developing and managing client accounts to maintain and build favorable relationships to meet the operational needs of the organization. She is also the IDIQ Program Management Officer overseeing the company's GWAC and IDIQ capture and management activities. Previously, Ms. Margle was the company's Marketing Communications Director responsible for developing and managing the company's marketing communications policies, strategies, and execution, both internally and externally. She was responsible for spearheading multiple employee engagement activities as well corporate giving campaigns focused on supporting U.S. military, veterans and their families including Project Hero, Wreaths Across America, and Soldiers Angels.

Ms. Margle began her career as the Director of Convention and Education Programs for the Association of Old Crows responsible for coordinating national and international seminars, classified and non-classified technical symposiums, awards banquets, and exhibit programs.

Ms. Margle is a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's University, Emmitsburg, Md. where she earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business and Finance. She currently serves as Co-Chair of the Naval Air Warfare Center Aircraft Division Lakehurst Small Business Roundtable Executive Steering Committee, President of Women in Defense Liberty Chapter, and board member of National Defense Industrial Association Delaware Valley Chapter. Ms. Margle is an avid cyclist and runner, enjoys cooking, and supporting our service men, service women, and veterans.